If the Contribution has more than one author, the Corresponding Author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all co-authors.

1. The Corresponding Author warrants that:

(1.1.) he/she is the owner of all the rights granted below to the Publisher, and has full power, authority and right to enter into this agreement and give the warranties and indemnities contained within it;

(1.2.) the Contribution has not heretofore been published in whole or in part (and that if it is, both the Editor and Publisher shall be notified);

(1.3.) the Contribution is original except for such excerpts from copyrighted works (including illustrations, tables, animations and text quotations) as may be included with the permission of the copyright holder thereof, in which case(s) the Corresponding Author is required to obtain written permission to the extent necessary and to indicate the precise sources of the excerpts in the Manuscript;

(1.4.) the Contribution contains no libellous or defamatory statements, and does not infringe on any copyright, trademark, patent, statutory right or proprietary right of others, including rights obtained through licences. The Corresponding Author further warrants that the Contribution is not in any way unlawful in the United Kingdom;

(1.5.) third-party materials (including without limitation quotations, photographs, pictures, diagrams, drawings, tables, graphs or maps, and whether reproduced from print or electronic or other sources) may only be included in the Contribution with the prior agreement of the Publisher. In this case the Corresponding Author must obtain (at the Corresponding Author's expense) all necessary permissions to enable the Publisher to use the third-party materials in the Contribution and shall provide the Publisher with: (1.5.1.) copies of all such permissions, and (1.5.2.) sufficient information to enable the Publisher to make appropriate acknowledgements;

(1.6.) all statements in the Contribution purporting to be facts are true and correct; all information submitted to the Editor and the Publisher is entirely accurate to the best knowledge of the Corresponding Author; any recipe, formula, instruction or recommendations contained within it will not, if followed accurately, cause any injury, illness or damage to any person.

3. The Corresponding Author agrees to execute all documents and do all things reasonably required by the Editor-in-Chief or the Publisher in order to confer to the Editor-in-Chief and the Publisher all rights intended to be granted under this Agreement.

Schedule 1: Consent to publish

4. The Corresponding Author will indemnify the Publisher against any costs, expenses or damages for which the Publisher may become liable as a result of any claim which, if true, would constitute a breach by Corresponding Author of any of Corresponding Author's representations or warranties in this agreement.

5. The copyright in the Contribution shall be vested in the name of Publisher. The Corresponding Author has asserted his/her right(s) to be identified as the originator of this Contribution in all editions and versions of the Work and parts thereof, published in any forms and media. Publisher may take, either in its own name or in that of the Corresponding Author, any necessary steps to protect the rights granted under this agreement against infringement by third parties.

6.3. The Corresponding Author agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any suit, action or proceedings and to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement, and irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
